LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

Mrs. F. J. Bartley of Greenwood is visiting Mrs. J. H. Reel.

Miss Miriam Norris is spending this week in Augusta with relatives.

Miss Virginia Addison is in Atlanta visiting Mrs. P. P. Blalock, Jr.

Mr. J. Manor Lawton of Spartanburg spent the week-end in Edgefield.

Miss Sallie Parker is visiting her sister, Mrs. T. Garrett Talbert of Parkville.

Mrs. J. C. Sheppard is in Asheville with her son, Mr. John C. Sheppard, Jr.

Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Jackson of Trenton were among the visitors in Edgefield Monday.

Dr. A. H. Corley is attending the Shriners' convention which is in session in Atlanta this week.

Miss Mae Roper who is teaching the Antioch school was the guest of Mrs. W. E. Lott Saturday.

Do not forget the 79-cents sale which the Corner Store announced for next Tuesday, the 19th of May.

Miss Petula LaGrone of Johnston visited her sisters, Mrs. J. E. Hart and Mrs. J. H. Tompkins last week.

Misses Kathleen and Evelyn Glover of North, S. C., arrived yesterday to spend some time here with relatives.

Messrs. Julian and Charlie Key came over from Columbia and spent Sunday with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Key.

Mr. Giles D. Mims passed through Edgefield yesterday en route to Leesville to visit his mother who is now in her 85th year.

"America's position in the world battle," and New York pictures Thursday night at Edgefield Methodist church.

Rev. E. C. Bailey and Rev. P. P. Blalock left yesterday to attend a meeting of the Presbytery which is being held in Columbia.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Medlock returned from their wedding journey Sunday afternoon, having visited Washington, New York and other northern points.

Dr. M. D. Jeffries and Rev. and Mrs. John Lake left Monday morning to attend the Southern Baptist convention which is in session in Nashville.

Have you registered for the municipal election? Do not put it off until the books close. Every citizen who is entitled to vote should cast a ballot.

Mr. John Brunson spent Sunday here with his brother, S. A. Brunson. He has been for a number of years in the employment of the Southern railroad with headquarters in Columbia.

Work on the handsome brick mansion of Mr. H. H. Sanders is progressing rapidly. Mr. W. S. G. Heath has been taking full advantage of the favorable weather we have had for the past few weeks.

The Edgefield lodge, Knights of Pythias, elected Dr. J. S. Byrd and Mr. A. E. Padgett delegates to the grand lodge which soon convenes in Chester. Mr. R. C. Palgett and Mr. N. M. Jones were elected alternates.

Steward J. R. Scurry is said to have a field of the finest corn in this part of the country. It averages about knee high. However, Mr. Scurry told the writer Monday that the unseasonable wind of last week damaged his corn to a considerable extent.

Our good friend Pierce Stevens of Johnston was in town Monday and called to see us. We wish Edgefield county had hundreds of farmers who are as progressive as Mr. Stevens. If we had them the old county would blossom as the rose from centre to circumference.

Mr. R. H. Middleton of Clark's Hill is in town, having come up in his "Metz" car. He is agent for these cars and has a number of prospective buyers on his list. The "Metz" stands high in automobile circles. The popular price is a strong point in its favor, especially when we consider the high quality of the car.

Mr. E. C. Barrett of Aiken and Mr. S. H. D. Adams of Parkville spent Monday here with Mr. L. G. Quarles.

Dr. C. E. Barts and Rev. John C. Carman were guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Cogburn during the Sunday school convention.

Miss Mary Talbert has closed her school in Camden and is at home for the summer. She has received a very cordial greetings from her friends.

Mrs. W. B. Cogburn left Saturday to be absent for two weeks visiting her son, Carroll, in Atlanta and daughter, Mrs. Craig, in Anderson.

Mr. S. T. Williams spent Sunday in Edgefield and while here told us of his recent visit to Clemson college to attend a meeting of the board of visitors. Mr. Williams was greatly pleased with every department of Clemson's work. He went up in his new car.

A young man who is making good since leaving home is Dr. George Adams, a son of Mr. and Mrs. George Adams of Colliers. He is in the government employment and is located in Oklahoma. He has been promoted several times since he entered the employment of Uncle Sam, a considerable raise being made in his salary each time.

Religious Notices.

The subject of the sermon this Sunday in the Presbyterian church is, "The religion that gives us an uplift." We extend a cordial invitation to all the community.

E. C. B.

All Trenton, and especially the young people from 10 years up to 20-odd, are invited to hear an illustrated sermon at Trenton Methodist church next Sunday morning at 11:15.

I intend to make an illustrated address at union service at Presbyterian church next Sunday night at 8:30 to which all are invited, and especially the young people from 10 years up to twenty-odd.

Rheumatism Quickly Cured.

My sister's husband had an attack of rheumatism in his arm writes a well known resident of Newton, Iowa. "I gave him a bottle of Chamberlain's liniment which he applied to his arm and on the next morning the rheumatism was gone." For chronic muscular rheumatism you will find nothing better than Chamberlain's liniment. Sold by all dealers.

Most Prompt and Effectual Cure for Bad Colds.

When you have a bad cold you want a remedy that will not only give relief, but effect a prompt and permanent cure, a remedy that is pleasant to take, a remedy that contains nothing injurious. Chamberlain's cough remedy meets all these requirements. It acts on nature's plan, relieves the lungs, aids expectoration, opens the secretions and restores the system to a healthy condition. This remedy has a world wide sale and use, and can always be depended upon. Sold by all dealers.

Health a Factor in Success.

The largest factor contributing to a man's success is undoubtedly health. It has been observed that a man is seldom sick when his bowels are regular, he is never well when they are constipated. For constipation you will find nothing quite so good as Chamberlain's tablets. They not only move the bowels but improve the appetite and strengthen the digestion. They are sold by all dealers.

A FRICK GRAIN THRESHER

The Frick Threshers are the most dependable, thorough, threshers built to-day. We've been building big farm machinery for years. An old 6 H. P. Frick Engine built in 1875 is still being run to-day. That's the way we build machinery. Our threshers are built in all sizes. There is the Eclipse No. 4 that only requires from 4 to 6 H. P. with a capacity of 30 to 50 bushels per hour. It threshes and thoroughly cleans wheat, oats, rye and buckwheat. It weighs but 2800 lbs. There is our big "Landis Eclipse"—a combination of everything good in threshing. You'll find we have just the machine you need. Hundreds of farmers will have nothing but Frick Machines. One man writes, "The No. 4 did perfect work in every way—has the best reputation of any thrasher that ever mashed mud. Easy terms—Special discounts for cash. Steam Traction and Portable Engines.
